

HOLIDAY LIGHTS AT SHORE ACRES

Coos Bay, Charleston, Cape Arago and Bandon fun too!

Depart	Tuesday,	December 10, 2019	2 days and 1 night
Return	Wednesday,	December 11, 2019	4 meals, snacks and lots of fun!

For those that have not been to Coos Bay and Charleston in awhile come and enjoy what these little towns have to offer! We will tour the historic Egyptian Theatre of which there are only two on the west coast - the other in Hollywood, CA! We will visit a historic newspaper house then off to the new Charleston Marine Life Center where aquaria highlights different coastal ecosystems with a variety of specimens showing diversity of life from coast to deep sea. At dusk we will visit Shore Acres State Park to see the waves crashing on the rocks. As darkness falls upon us we will walk thru the park where 250,000 lights bring life to this winter wonderland! Afterward we will have dinner at the Mill Casino where we are staying. Before leaving, we will visit the Coos History Museum where guests can explore the unique history of the southern Oregon Coast.

In Bandon we will visit the Washed Ashore Gallery where art sculptures of sea life are made from plastic marine debris then become part of a traveling exhibition - some pieces even make it to the Smithsonian! And can you believe it - they even have Sylvia the Silvertip Shark! Yikes! Free time on own to shop/eat. A visit to Face Rock Creamery with its delicious cheese and ice cream finishes our time in this fabulous Coastal town!
